TEXT CfA

3rd Genshagen Trilateral Summer School, Aug 20-29, Genshagen (close to Berlin):

“The European Union in a Multipolar World: German, French and Polish perspectives on EU external action.”.

On August 20–29, 2014 the third Genshagen Trilateral Summer School will take place as a joint project of Stiftung Genshagen, the European University Viadrina, the Institut d’Etudes Politiques de Strasbourg and the Jagiellonian University in Cracow. Students from Germany, France and Poland respectively will gather at castle Genshagen close to Berlin for ten days in order to discuss, from their various perspectives, a topic of European relevance. The third Genshagen Summer School will be devoted to "The European Union in a Multipolar World: German, French and Polish perspectives on EU external action."

Who can apply?

We invite applications from students at Master level as well as early-stage PhD-students enrolled at a German, French or Polish university. Prior experience with related topics is welcome. We also value previous international experiences, especially in a Weimar triangle context. As the summer school's working language is English, its excellent command is a prerequisite.

When do I have to apply?

The deadline for applications is 22nd June 2014 and successful candidates will be notified by 4th July.

How do I apply?

Please send us a cover letter (750 to 800 words) detailing why you wish to participate in the Genshagen Summer School, what you intend to contribute and your CV including your academic as well as extracurricular career. Everything should be in English, as that is the Summer School's working language. We only accept electronic applications to summerschool@stiftung-genshagen.de <<mailto:summerschool@stiftung-genshagen.de>> .

How many places are there?

Up to 8 students from each country will be able to participate in the Summer School, meaning that the total number of students will be 24.

How much does it cost and where will I stay?

The tuition fee is 100 €. This covers all costs related to your stay in Genshagen: you share a double room at the castle and all meals are included with the exception of lunches and dinners during the weekend. Unfortunately, we cannot cover your trip from your hometown to Genshagen and back.

Where can I find more information?
