

CEU Cardenal Herrera University (Valencia-Spain) started at the beginning of the year 2012 an ambitious project for internationalization. To develop our strategy, we have created an International Working Group that we want to increase with students and graduates from other European countries. From January 2012 we have received more than 50 students (French, English, Slovenian, Italian, German, Polish, etc) Please find attached a picture of this year's international student group).

Your mission in this group will be different according to the internship you are accepted in, but these will be your main missions:

*Collaboration in the process of internationalization by faculties.

*Strengthening international relations office.

*Search for new opportunities to attract students to study at our University.

*Design communication actions to the outside through social networks, website, etc.

*Language support in the Primary and Secondary School.

We would like to recruit more international students for academic year 2014-2015, (placement of 6 months minimum/ full academic year preferable)

The profiles we are interested in are the following:

- A) ERASMUS OFFICE: 2 students of Business, Translation or Communication. Required language (B2 English and French and B1 Spanish)

For all the others, a level B1 in Spanish is required and self-initiative.

We offer to join a group of young people, who will carry out an ambitious international project. In addition, the university offers free Spanish courses, bonus for meals from Monday to Friday, and the possibility of extending their studies at our university (specific offer for international students including master courses). The internship doesn't offer an economic complement.

In case you are interested you can contact me or send me the curricula and option specified to merche.gimeno@uch.ceu.es

Deadline:

30 of November to start in February.

We encourage foreign students and graduates to live this great opportunity at a university with a large international presence, an excellent work environment, a young and professional atmosphere, and located in as unique city as Valencia.

Yours sincerely,
