

Venue

The National University of Science and Technology “MISiS” will hold the Youth Congress of the International Student Associations “Networking Cooperation of Student Associations.” MISiS is located in the center of Moscow, 2 km South of the Kremlin and red Square. The University offers meeting rooms, multimedia classrooms and other resources that will be used during the Congress.

Address: 4, Leninsky prospect, Moscow, 119049, Russia

www.misis.ru

Expenses

The Organizing Committee will cover the cost of holding the Congress (including the cultural programming and coffee breaks during the breakout sessions). The cost of travel to the venue of the Congress, as well as food and accommodation in Moscow are at the expense of the sending party. The Organizing Committee is ready to assist in visa issuance (invitation letters), as well as in the organization of temporary housing accommodation for the participants of the Congress.

Cultural Program

During the Congress participants will be offered a cultural program with visits to Moscow’s main attractions

Information

Youth Congress of the International Student Associations

November 19-22, 2014

Russia, Moscow

National University of Science and Technology “MISiS”

Through the support of Rosstrudnichestvo (Russian Centers for Science and Culture), the Russian Ministry of Science and Education

Participants: Representatives from the administrations of universities responsible for international cooperation and extra-curricular activities at universities, Rosstrudnichestvo (Russian Centers for Science and Culture), the Russian Ministry of Science and Education, and other ministries and agencies

Main Objectives of the Congress are:

to improve upon the network of cooperation and interaction among student organizations, to share experiences and to develop contacts through the implementation of programs of international youth exchanges, and establish the International Youth Association for development of student associations within the partnership network of partner universities.

Key Issues of the Congress

- Goals and objectives of student associations,
- Self-government mechanisms,
- Teamwork and leadership development
- Cultural adjustment issues and programming for international students,
- Employment assistance

Other topics that are of interest to Congress participants and connected to the main theme of the Congress

Address of the Organizing Committee

4, Leninsky prospect, Moscow, 119049, Russia. The National University of Science and Technology "MISiS".

E-mail: e.shevchenko@misis.ru

Contacts:

Elena Shevchenko

Тел.: +7 (499)2367467

Nikolay Krivolapov

Phone/fax: +7 (495) 6384499

Working languages of this committee are:

- Russian
- English.

Participation and Publications

Please submit completed applications via e-mail. Abstracts of presentations will be published on the website of MISiS: www.misis.ru. Applications for participation in the Congress must be received by November 12, 2014

Main Terms

Deadline to participate and send materials:

by November 12, 2014

Deadline to submit abstracts:

by November 12, 2014

Deadline to finalize the Program of the Congress:

by November 17, 2014